

This week I found myself answering this statement, "It's not fair", with "Life is not fair, and that's a good thing. I don't want to get what I fairly deserve."

Lent is a time when we honestly look at our sins, and what we deserve, which is death. But thank God for His grace and mercy which are new every morning. He gives us life in him, and eternal life and that is not fair, not in the least! Thank you, God, for your unfairness, and your love for us!

Blessings,

Jenae Lato
